EVENT PLANNING

Care is taken in the Planning of any of our events to ensure the proper situation for our clients and their clients. We take the time up front to learn what it is our clients desire from their event, and

The Southern Fried Rock Show at Peter B's

we properly match that with the resources and talents available to us. We make sure the people attending your events are getting and listening to the types of entertainment they enjoy.

EVENT CONSULTING

Maybe you are already running your own event and just need some new ideas or some creative and technical help. We offer Consulting to our clients based on years of experience and knowledge in live entertainment and concert events, no matter the purpose.

EVENT PROMOTION

Promotion is a critical key to the success of any of our events, which translates into success for our clients. We utilize several means of promotional advertising including radio, television, print and internet. Our graphics and technical capabilities are also utilized to create web sites, logos, flyers, posters and event merchandise, all of which are geared towards increasing your events attendance.

EVENT MANAGEMENT

Proper Management, from inception through execution, is the difference between success and failure of an event. We are actively involved in all aspects of the events we are hired to put on or be a part of. It's the difference between your success and ours, which is why we only work with the best, provide the best, and are the best in the area.
